DEFINITIONS

36 M.R.S.A. § 681. Definitions

As used in this subchapter, unless the context otherwise indicates, the following terms have the following meanings.

1. Applicant. "Applicant" means an individual who has applied for a homestead property tax exemption.
2. Homestead. "Homestead" means any residential property in Maine assessed as real property owned by an applicant or held in a revocable living trust for the benefit of the applicant and occupied by the applicant as the applicant's permanent residence. A homestead does not include any real property used solely for commercial purposes.
3. Permanent residence. "Permanent residence" means that place where an individual has a true, fixed and permanent home and principal establishment to which the individual, whenever absent, has the intention of returning. An individual may have only one permanent residence at a time and, once a permanent residence is established, that residence is presumed to continue until circumstances indicate otherwise.
4. Permanent resident. "Permanent resident" means an individual who has established a permanent residence. A person on active duty serving in the Armed Forces of the United States who is permanently stationed at a military or naval post, station or base in this state is deemed to be a permanent resident. A person on active duty serving in the Armed Forces of the United States does not include a member of the National Guard or the Reserves.
5. Qualifying shareholder. "Qualifying shareholder" means a person who is a shareholder in a cooperative housing corporation that owns a homestead in this state, a shareholder for the preceding 12 months in that cooperative housing corporation and a permanent resident of Maine.

36 M.R.S.A. § 683(5):

Determination of exemption for cooperative housing corporation. A cooperative housing corporation may apply for an exemption under this subchapter to be applied against the valuation of property of the corporation that is occupied by qualifying shareholders. The application must include a list of all qualifying shareholders and must be updated annually to reflect changes in the ownership and residency of qualifying shareholders. The exemption is equal to the amount specified in subsection 1 multiplied by the number of units in the cooperative property occupied by qualifying shareholders. A cooperative housing corporation that receives an exemption pursuant to this section shall apportion the property tax reduction resulting from the exemption among the qualifying shareholders on a per unit basis. Any supplemental assessment resulting from disqualification for exemption must be applied in the same manner against the qualifying shareholders for whom the disqualification applies.
